The Genesis of a Hymn

The story of Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus begins in 1858, with a young Methodist minister named George Duffield. While serving a congregation in Philadelphia, Duffield's heart was heavy with the divisions and apathy that seemed to permeate the church at the time. In a moment of inspiration, he penned the words that would later become the hymn's unforgettable lyrics, calling upon believers to rise up and defend their faith amidst a hostile and indifferent world.

Lyrics of Faith and Courage

The lyrics of Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus are a masterpiece of simplicity and power, each verse painting a vivid picture of the challenges faced by Christians and the unwavering faith that sustains them. The first verse sets the stage, urging believers to stand up and be counted, even when met with scorn and derision:

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, Ye soldiers of the cross; Lift high his royal banner, It must not suffer loss.

The second verse highlights the unwavering nature of the Christian faith, emphasizing that despite adversity, believers will not be shaken:

From victory unto victory His army shall he lead, Till every foe is vanquished, And Christ is Lord indeed.

The third verse serves as a call to action, encouraging believers to be bold witnesses for their faith, even in the face of persecution:

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, The trumpet call obey; Forth to the mighty conflict, In this his glorious day.

The concluding verse echoes the theme of unwavering faith, reminding believers that victory is assured:

Ye that are men now serve him Against unnumbered foes; Let courage rise with danger, And strength to strength oppose.

The Enduring Legacy of a Hymn
