As Alice spends more time with Elizabeth, she begins to notice strange and unsettling behavior. Elizabeth is overly possessive of her children and seems to have an unhealthy obsession with controlling her husband. Alice's suspicions grow when she discovers that Elizabeth has a history of mental illness.

When one of Elizabeth's children goes missing, Alice is torn between her desire to help and her fear of getting involved. But as she investigates further, she uncovers a web of lies and deceit that threatens to destroy both her and her newfound family.

Characters

- Alice Walker: A single mother who moves into a new neighborhood and becomes increasingly suspicious of her neighbors.
